

Outer Banks Blue participates in team building exercises while “Adopting A Highway” in Duck, NC

September, 2010, Kitty Hawk, NC- In 1988 North Carolina Department of Transportation (NCDOT), established the Adopt-A-Highway program (AAH), as an answer to the growing problem of litter along the state’s highways. This remains a joint effort between NCDOT and the community volunteers. North Carolina and its communities work hard to enhance the natural beauty along its roadways. In December 2005, Outer Banks Blue began picking up trash on this 2 mile stretch of highway in Duck, between Wee Winks & Carolina Dunes of Duck, NC. Outer Banks Blue attempts to make every effort in “Going Green” and keeping things “green”. By picking up trash off of the road, this aids our future generations in seeing a cleaner atmosphere and also by reminding them of where not to put these items. “At Outer Banks Blue we pride ourselves on being conscious of the beauty of the area. Our commitment to the Adopt A Highway program is one way our team feels that we can show people our willingness to give back. To have our reservations staff celebrate the end of our rental season by picking up trash is a testament to their awareness of what is important to all of us,” states Tim Cafferty, Owner & President of Outer Banks Blue.
