

Outer Banks Blue Welcomes Kim Endre as Sales Manager at Outer Banks Blue

Kitty Hawk, NC- July 2010/Outer Banks Blue/Press Release- Outer Banks Blue, a leading vacation & rental estate firm, is pleased to announce Kim Endre has joined the company as Sales Manager. Kim, a native of Illinois, brings more than 18 years of local Real Estate & Management experience to her new position, as well as her terrific personality.

Kim has lived on and enjoyed the Outer Banks for almost 20 years now. She and her husband, Pete moved to the Outer Banks on her birthday in April and she will never leave. Kim received her NC Real Estate & Broker License in 2004 and has worked with several companies. She has gained the experience that we consider valuable and important to the growth of our company, through previous positions with Realty World, Outer Banks Construction, and Coldwell Banker. “We are thrilled to have Kim join us to lead our sales team,” says Outer Banks Blue President, Tim Cafferty, “we know Kim personally and professionally, and couldn’t be more pleased that a person with such high professional and personal standards has come to lead our sales team. The addition of Kim continues our goal of growing into the choice when it comes to Real Estate Services on the Outer Banks.”

For the 2010 year, she is serving as President Elect for the Outer Banks Association of Realtors, and will fill in as the President in 2011. She has volunteered on the Board of Directors for OBAR (Outer Banks Association of Realtors) for 5 years now. She is certified in many things, such as Short Sale and Foreclosure Specialist (SFR), New Home Sales Professional (CSP), Resort & Second Home Property Specialist (RSPS), and Senior Real Estate Specialist (SRES). She is a Leadership Academy Graduate, and also is a Rising Star Award Recipient. Her experience ranges from Construction & Appraisals to Real Estate, as well as volunteering with Relay For Life. As a supporter of the American Cancer Society, through local efforts with the Relay For Life, we look forward to having her to help this year.
